ALYSSA SAYS: "I will attend the University of Georgia, and unfortunately the school does not have a figure skating team. I would love to demonstrate my loyalty to skating by starting an ISI collegiate team and also assist in developing a strong learn-to-skate program. With my two years of experience as a junior coach for the Columbus Ice Rink, I am beyond excited for the opportunity to continue giving back to the sport I am passionate about by introducing children and college students to the amazing world of figure skating."

ERIC SAYS: "I skated in my first ISI World Championships at the age of 6, and to this day the spirited camaraderie of that competition reminds me of how my love for figure skating began. ISI provided me with the solid foundation of skating skills, friends and a support system that has been crucial to my development as not only a skater but also as a human being. These valuable lessons of 'try your best,' 'learn from your mistakes,' and even 'have fun' helped me with learning how to cope with circumstances at home or at school."

HELEN SAYS: "The club [Red Wing Figure Skating Club] did not have opportunities to compete, but after enough persuasion from me and several girls, we started a competition team through ISI in 2011. Joining a recreational ice skating organization [Ice Skating Institute] changed my club, and even though we only practice once a week, competing became feasible for me. ISI reinvigorated my passion for skating."

JULIA SAYS: "I have competed with the Winterland Skating Club for 13 years and throughout that time, ISI has given me the ability to discover skating as my passion. I have grown to love entertaining people and discovered choreography as one of my passions. If given the chance, I honestly think I could skate every day for the rest of my life. That's why becoming an ISI certified coach and judge has been such an exciting opportunity for me. There is no doubt in my mind that I will be involved with ISI figure skating for the rest of my life."
