

Professional Member

It's Renewal Time!

When you renew your Professional membership and purchase your liability insurance, you'll get BOTH for only $170 - the industry's best bargain! ISI's liability insurance for Professional members can be purchased online. If you pay online your insurance certificate will be emailed to you after your background check is complete.

NOTICE: An ISI background check is now required before a Professional membership can be approved. Once ISI has received your application you will be sent an email from ISI with instructions for completing the required information before your membership can be processed. Please know there is an additional charge for all international members that do not have a US social security number.

Or, after you have ordered your Professional membership and/or Liability insurance online, you may go to the following link to complete your background check. Because of our automated process, you may still receive an emailed request the next business day.
